PRESS NOTE

Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics (GIPE), Pune hosted the 3rd Round Table on “MSME and Viksit Bharat @2047” on 20 November 2025, bringing together industry leaders, startup mentors and policy experts to discuss the future of India’s MSME sector.

Convened by Mr. Shantanu Srivastava (MD, Ishan International / Ishan Foundation) and Mr. Aditya Pittie (MD, PYN Autocomp Pvt Ltd), the discussion explored bold strategies to accelerate MSME growth, strengthen policy alignment, and boost India’s export competitiveness.

Key focus areas included:

- Achieving 15% annual MSME growth and expanding global market presence
- Enhancing synergy with government schemes
- Addressing on-ground challenges faced by MSMEs

Raising startup success rates from 10% to over 50% by improving mentoring, risk-mitigation and skill support systems

The consultation underscored the critical role of MSMEs in realising Hon’ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi’s vision of Viksit Bharat @2047 and reaffirmed GIPE’s commitment to contributing to national policy dialogues.

A detailed policy brief based on the discussion will be released soon.
